

ROTARY HOUSE REFURBISHMENT

Residents and Families Update

Issue 17 | Update – 28 March 2025

Dear residents, families and representatives,

Stage One of the refurbishment is very close to completion and we are so excited to be welcoming everyone into the new spaces in the near future. We are anticipating that we will be reopening the refurbished wing at the end of April and we will communicate individually with the residents who will be impacted. Once we have finished Stage One we will move on to Stage Two, and in next fortnight's update we'll share more detail about this stage including what it will involve and expected timings.

What happened this fortnight?

- Door numbers have been installed outside the resident suites
- Final touches and cleaning of the resident suites
- Cabinetry in the common spaces is being installed
- Stone bench tops have been installed

Room numbers outside the resident suites

Completed ensuite

Completed kitchenette and lounge area

What's happening next fortnight?

- The common spaces will be completed
- Furniture will start to be delivered
- The architects will carry out a final inspection
