

Introducing our team

The Chaplaincy team includes the Coordinating Chaplain, part-time Chaplains, Pastoral Care volunteers and administration staff.

Our services are available across our metropolitan and regional residential care homes

Metropolitan locations

- Golden Grove
- Ingle Farm
- Lightsview
- Mawson Lakes
- North Adelaide
- Parafield Gardens

Regional locations

- Clare
- Jamestown
- Port Pirie
- Whyalla

We provide services across many lands, traditionally owned by the Kurna, Narangga, Ngadjuri, Nukunu, Banggarla, and Peramangk people.

Helping Hand acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the land on which we work and provide services.

We pay respect to their culture and heritage, and Elders past, present and emerging.

spiritual wellbeing

Introduction

The Helping Hand community is privileged to be made up of a blend of people from many cultures, religions, identities, backgrounds and beliefs. Staff, volunteers, residents – as well as their families and friends – all form part of this unique community.

The Chaplaincy team offers personalised Pastoral care to residents and their families and support networks.

We are here to share your journey and to support your spiritual, social and emotional wellbeing.

Chaplaincy services are for everyone.
We welcome and celebrate all people.

How we can share your journey listening to your story with empathy and compassion offering personalised support that is respectful of your whole life's journey

celebrating life's blessings and special moments exploring in a respectful way, your faith and your views on spirituality, meaning and purpose being there for you, and your loved ones, through changes and challenges providing solace and comfort; friendship and laughter

helping you to access additional services and support

Chaplaincy services may vary from home to home.

Worship and Church services

Residential Care Homes hold regular services and local teams can also support you to attend church services in your local community.

Days and times of services are available from the Lifestyle team at your home.

The Chaplaincy team can also help you to stay connected with your preferred denomination or faith community.
